Kennel Licensing Information

Application:

Applications for registration and licensing should be submitted to the Centerfield City offices. Proof of rabies vaccination is required for all dogs over 3 months of age. All permanent dogs should be listed on the kennel license application. Any application received on, or after February 1st of each year will be considered late. Kennels are subject to inspection.

City Ordinance:

5.30.102 Dog licensing and rabies vaccination:

- License Required: It is unlawful for any person to keep, harbor or maintain any dog three (3) or more months old unless such dog has been registered and licensed in the manner herein provided.
- All dogs over the age of three (3) months must be individually licensed unless they are residents of the jurisdiction for less than thirty (30) days; residents of a veterinary clinic, research facility, animal shelter or impoundment facility.
- All dogs over the age of three (3) months must be vaccinated for rabies and a copy of the vaccination certificate must be presented with the license application.
- Term Of License: The license fee shall cover the calendar year in which the license was issued, expiring on December 31 of the year of issuance, regardless of the date when issued.
- Rabies vaccinations must be given by a licensed veterinarian in accordance with state law and the Compendium of Animal Rabies Prevention and Control.

5.30.103 Kennels:

- Kennel license Fees: Anyone owning, keeping, harboring or maintaining five (5) or more dogs over the age of three (3) months shall be considered to be operating a kennel and shall be required to pay an annual kennel license fee in such amount established by resolution of the city council. Facilities may be inspected annually.

- Licensed dogs must wear tags at all times. Owners of licensed kennels shall obtain individual license tags for each dog
- Permit required. No person shall operate or maintain a kennel without first obtaining a permit from the division of animal control
- Application. All applications for permits to operate or maintain a kennel, shall be submitted in writing upon printed forms provided for such purposes by the city. The application shall first be referred to the City Recorder. Upon approval, the city shall issue the permit upon payment of the fee herein provided
- Before the license can be issued the following conditions of the kennel must be met:
  - The location where the dogs are kept, raised, housed, or boarded must be two hundred (200) feet away from any neighboring house, and; Must be one hundred fifty (150) feet from any road. The following minimum standards shall be complied with to obtain and maintain a kennel permit: Enclosure must be provided which shall allow adequate protection against weather extremes. Floors of buildings, runs and walls shall be of an appropriate material as required by the specific breed of animal and also to permit proper cleaning and disinfecting. Adequate ventilation shall be maintained and an appropriate temperature provided as required by the specific breed of animal housed therein. Each animal shall have sufficient space to stand up, lie down and turn around without touching the sides or tops of cages. Runs shall provide an adequate exercise area and protection from the weather. All animal quarters and runs are to be kept clean, dry and in a sanitary condition. The food shall be free of contamination, palatable and of sufficient nutritive value as to meet the normal daily requirements for the condition and size of the animal. Fresh water is to be available at all times. Water vessels shall be mounted or secured in a manner that prevents tipping and be of the removable type.
- Holders of existing kennel permits which do not meet the distance requirements required in this section shall be exempt from the distance requirements for their existing animals. As animals die, are sold, given away, or are otherwise removed from the property, they may not be replaced unless all of the conditions of this section are met. The city shall have the power to revoke the kennel permit in the event that the permit holder is convicted of any other violation of the provisions of this title.
